

All of nature

So I had this doubt inside of me some kind of crazy purgatory and I took this doubt just as far as it would go aaaww you don't want to know and my mind, it was trying but it was destined to fail shadowboxing inside a linear jail, 'cause the answers don't come if the questions are wrong that's why I wrote this song

An' when we ask the biggest questions of all time and we choose to ignore what can't be quantified, then we hide, with euphemisms like, incidentals and collateral, and we pull, the wool over our own eyes cos the set of things that science will never prove is boundless and immeasurable so it becomes illogical to think exclusively materialistically it's time to love our mother x8

cause all of nature is conspiring for freedom
all of nature
so I pull myself back in, there's no fractioning

pull invisible and make it seen
all of nature

so let all your problems face the Oneness in you now for there is only one
One

Back into the sky

And the mantras fall down from the heavens as we sing them back into the sky outstretched on the grass in the starlight clutching the blades as she cries as the far away voices came tuning her heart opened wide and the thousands of years started streaming down her face thro her hair earth inside mother I'm so sorry for what we're doing to you yeah we're pirates marauding laying waste to your beauty in our ignorance and greed we done cut off your hair and we poisoned your blood we've forgotten your love

As the tuning fork went right through her she was part of an infinite song and as the multiverse stretched to evolve itself she heard all conscious beings sing along and as the faraway voices came closer her heart burst open wide because she knew that the balance existed and the symphony could never die

Come to the garden

Be aware .....

our greatest ally to the journey of the self keeps us awake and present to the now and then you hear the wisdom of the heart

who are you ?
are you authentic can you touch ecstatic love well come to the garden and free yourself now in dharma's wheel,

divine Ideas

emerge through the oneness still this flickering mind yes be in the stillness and come to the garden drop the veils feel insight this body temple is a filament for divine light

I want the sweet water of appreciation to bathe everything that I do infinite love I want you

At your core beyond the limited thought forms you have bought there is a spiritual blueprint hanging out so be aware and dare to come out today from material mode

then the birds will carry food to your doorstep

yeah I'll get you back by Sunday night our body temples are filaments for divine light

I want the sweetwater of appreciation to bathe everything that we do

infinite love I want you

Come to the garden with me

Infinite mind

Come to wake up , wake up

I spent so long wondering the halls of loneliness judging everyone else's delusion and not seeing my own now here I am standing in the presence whose center is everywhere hey you know you better believe it quantum physics is proven this true for me awww, just meditate

swim in this infinite source swim you and me and everything that ever shall be of course

Our quantum lights are shattering the darkness universal luminosity Melts the veils dissolves the drama it's evolution to be just come try to be completely poised objective and subjective mind balanced perfectly there's no need to feel alone now because were already free.

Just one love you see just be the love, just be the love

God (Bill Maher dont throw the baby out with the bathwater)

God
so much baggage on that word means so many different things to so many people yeah what is God ?

maybe something infinite in all directions those perceived and unperceived alike
infinite directions

Dissolving into
love without resistance love without a cure
love everlasting
love forever more

maybe something that was never born and never dies yet contains every birth and every death every birth and every death across the multiverse

Beyond the boundaries of vocabulary beyond the boundaries of dogma, religion, philosophy, ownership, politics, they all become temporary in the oneness of this God

A love without resistance a love without a cure

a love forever more,

it's always been here

So to this God

I can surrender into you sitting still distills the binary outside the mind

deep inside the senses

only sweetness

I love without resistance

it's always been here,

it'll always be here

Beyond the wrath

I don't always believe the things

I say inside

this residue

of fork in path

yeah we're done for now but was still so strange and new it's funny how perfection shows

itself to us

in such strange ways

I loved you then and I love you now

I will love you for always

Tied in waves

tied in ways

not slave to the math new territory new dominion of my mind and I thank you

we met far out on fractile's edge cats walked about on bending ledge

it's quantum here

outside of fear

symphonic view

in tune with you and I still want you through space and time and I still love you through rain or shine maybe one day

can I still dream

you and me babe

strawberries and cream

An' it builds

And it builds

it builds on top of what was always there layer upon layer upon layer and no one seems to know or remember

every creatures past has been distilled to make this moment now in which we stand but the pyramid is too high for the land well it's got me thinking is there, is there another shape that we could make? x2 Shape us again, we're dropping all those statues shape us again, well this time horizontal shape us again, well this time more affection shape us again, so that I can trust you

the orchards of our minds been left untilled the purpose of the species unfulfilled still Plato sits in cave where shadow puppetry enslaves stick to entrenched believes rob the future pay the Chiefs we are sent to duplicate when we conjoin the church and state and all that sits behind the dam turns on itself inside the woman

when wealthy men send poor kids off to war dwindling resources is what that's for and that is gaudy silence from the shores of Easter Island

Is there, is there
another shape that we could make?

shape us again, this time horizontal
shape us again so that I can trust you, so that I can trust you, all of you

Edge of you

On the edge of you
we glue paper leaves to winter trees ambush memories wrapped up teardrops with rotting ribbons you'll open them later you never will

water falls to space the crevice took the path the hull has gone dissolved you're bleeding in the bath puncturing all resolve you'll patch it up later

Songbirds stricken sobbing for your hearts arrest roots suspended in the eyes of the confessed where does a young boys adoration grow ?

mother lost to the snow

they just left you there a child's bewilderment at how skilled they were at the practice of not feeling anything she'll return to you later she never will

Caution to the wind

The beach was silent the moon was low the pier offered circles but I was quick to let them go you offered your kindness you kept me warm only then sensing this was the eye of the storm and I throw

I am astray in you
it's futile to rescind cause I can pray in you braided divine your hands in mine we dissolve we dissolve and I throw caution to the wind

I see the skylights crown your head fluttering curtains
tea and shortbread.
Stained-glass patterns the lights of your eyes starry magnificence purifies

Dive dive you and me submerge beneath debris dive dive into swell submerge let truth propel

Joy in store

When I feel you

I feel everything
A walk in town reveals who's feeling down and I can tell who's running fine standing still in line Cos when I feel you

you gift
you door
you joy in store
you bliss
you change
this tenderness exchange

when I feel you
you crystallize my tainted eyes and give me back what I've been longing for

I'm taking back myself
taking back myself
what I've been looking for

When I feel you

tranquility
this pulse in me it seems to be the same as every bird and tree cos when I feel you

Post revolutionary victory song

100 years had passed surprisingly we had survived the boys fear-based stance
...and all the tension was gone, mythological memory just vapors written in song but I remember that day when all of the Mothers in the world said
'put the guns away'
' just put the guns away' they said
'we won't have sex with you ever again if there's one more child laying dead' when the cup overflowed clouds of compassion filled the air until it snowed well still you tried to control you started issuing IDs to trees and fish in a bowl that's when your God got too small and all of the definitions you could think of meant nothing at all.

That's when you're cowardice showed already so dead inside to trust the flux as it flowed

The love was too much for you to bear blank eyed and bloated your hearts exploded and we stopped to stare

.....and as your species died out a language older than words came back bearing some kind of ancient aphrodisiac and all the creatures that were left behind well it was clear that Heaven was here yeah it was clear that Heaven was always here to find

Well that was so long ago and human capability has stretched so much farther than you'll ever know so now we live sustainably where hatred and fear and greed own no vocabulary and hierarchy has dissipated along with that pyramidal slavery you perpetuated and poverty and profit and rape are gone the air and water clean and still we all got enough to live on

Reveal

the universe is here to

reveal

unlimited splendor

Reveal

the infinite diversity of expression no one can withstand her allure

adore the colors and the shapes

her enchantment

reveal

the one who permeates us all the one great lover

reveal
mortal and immortal
reveal
transient and eternal

Perceive the terrifying beauty be free to suffer and be thrilled

Music of the spheres

Unstable emptiness far out in space something comes from nothing and the universal one sings us all right now so let us open to this grace open cos everything is music come on and raise that frequency undo the limits of your thought and know that it is possible undo that patterning and fly

can you hear
the music of the spheres

will you bring
the songs
that only you can sing
bring

So let intentions manifest ' cause form follows consciousness Let's wait in this feeling tone and build till it sustains then we could take it anywhere we could bring it everywhere
